"Face The Reaper"

Visit "Face The Reaper" on MotoLyrics.com

you've lived your life you've lived your sins you've suffered strife at the end of the line there's nothing left it's your demise
death's around the bend it's all been said
you've met your end everyone gets a ride at the end of their days to the other side

are you ready to die leave this world and say goodbye are you ready to face the reaper

surrounded by hate tried so hard to love but now you met with fate the people you've met and all those you've lost got many regrets you've learned so much about facing the world about patience and trust is this happening to you is this happening to me there's nothing we can do
