Feel the joy without touching you
Spread your legs, I'll see what I can do for you
But I can't remember your name

I think about the dirt
I think about our smiles
I think about the lies
I think about our suicide looking in my heart, well I'm afraid
Laying in the dawn, laying till to die, well I'm afraid

A milky skin. Yes I wanna taste
A broken heart. A bleed on my blade
For you,... well I can't remember your name

I think about the dirt
I think about our smiles
I think about the lies
I think about our suicide looking in my heart, well I'm afraid
Laying in the dawn, laying till to die, well I'm afraid

A Kiss from a rose, it's alright i'm afraid
I see you in ..., i see you over there
Well I'm afraid
I see you in the night, I say you're in for a ride
I kiss your ass for fun
Yes I like to run
Always for sure, lying in a rug
I kiss your ass for fun
Yes I like to run
