Donâ€™t call me country when you call
Thatâ€™s not the way I wish to fall
There was a time when a stare meant so much
Now I'm relying on this love sick crush

But donâ€™t call me country when you call
Thatâ€™s not the way I wish to fall
Hand in hand weâ€™ll reach the ground
Hearts in rhythm leaving this town

Lost and away youâ€™ll bring me back
Lost and away youâ€™ll bring me back
Bring me back

Well when you wake up from that sleep
Please hesitate to call on me
To bring up old apologies
Unending blame not revelry
Itâ€™s all just romance of Prolonging an end to this
Itâ€™s all misspent energy
Itâ€™s dead flowers grown in weeds

But donâ€™t call me country when you call
Thatâ€™s not the way I wish to fall
Suspects for self destruction are waiting for me
The mind measures memories on misery

Lost and away youâ€™ll bring me back
Lost and away youâ€™ll bring me back
Bring me back

And when you come to comfort these
Old ashes new epiphanies
Remember all the poverty we had

What good lies in the aftermath
All the alcohol and needless death
All the pretty pests with sweetness left
Inside this rotting mess

But donâ€™t call me country when you call

Thatâ€™s not the way I wish to fall

But lost and away youâ€™ll bring me back

Lost and away youâ€™ll bring me back

Bring me back
