Well my lips begin to shutter
And my heart beats out of time
Cause the sound of your sweet voice
It is a downfall of mine

You make me oh so nervous
Baby you give me butterflies
Til I can't control myself
Can't control myself anymore

Whenever you're around me
Well my hands begin to shake
And I get so paralyzed
I find it very hard to speak

Just the mere sight of your presence
Makes me lose all sense of time
Til I can't control myself
Can't control myself anymore

I shake and I tremble
I can't even remember my own name
My legs start to fall
And I can't control myself at all

I don't think you have the slightest of ideas
Where my mind is
When you sing that lovely melody
I love for you to sing

When you put your arms around me
I float right up off the floor
When you come knockin'
I'm running straight for the door

Cause I can't control myself
Can't control myself
Can't control myself
Anymore
