Tomorrow's got you scared 'cause you have an exam
You don't think you're best and you really jam - a-ha-ha
You've just had a ball with the one you love
And you're wonderin' how you're gonna patch it up - aha-ha

But don't you worry, it'll be alright
So just put some faith in your life

Cracks in your wall
That don't mean to say you're about to fall
Today's a tomorrow you worried about yesterday
Ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh
Cracks in your wall
That don't mean to say you're about to fall
Today's a tomorrow you worried about yesterday
Ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh

You're running out of money and you need a love
Phoning all your friends but they're not at home - a-haha
You've done and made a dent in your Dad's new car Tomorrow he returns and you're scared to tell Ma - a-
ha-ha

But don't you worry, it'll be alright
So just put some faith in your life

Cracks in your wall
That don't mean to say you're about to fall
Today's a tomorrow you worried about yesterday
Ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh
Cracks in your wall
That don't mean to say you're about to fall
Today's a tomorrow you worried about yesterday
Ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh ....
Ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh
