We lost our way, we almost wound up in Mexico.
But who's to say they would have found us anyway.
But that's okay, just turn the sound up and away we go.
But that's okay, just turn the lights down and away we go.

She's gonna meet me there. She's gonna write her name on my arm.
She's gonna wear my coat, She'll wanna take it off when we get home.
She's gonna bring some wine. I'm gonna drink more than my share.
She's gonna take her time, 'cause she knows what time means.

Do you know how far we are from the moon?
Do you know how fast we are? We are.

We lost our way, we almost wound up in Tokyo.
But who's to say they would have found us anyway.
But that's okay, just turn the sound up and away we go.
But that's okay, just turn the lights down and away we go.

Do you know how far we are from the moon?
Do you know how fast we are?
Do you know how far we are from the moon?
Do you know how fast we are? We are.

We are from the moon
We are from the moon
