

Goodbye June "Lady Luck"

You're a shadow,
Standing in your own sunshine,
Always doing what
Feels right, not wasting no time.

You're alone,
Waiting for your bus to leave,
Waiting for your chance to go,
Waiting for your chance to breathe

Through the Darkness
Through the Darkness you run
Close behind you
Close behind you it comes
Lady Luck finally found
You out in the sun

Friends and family,
Watching as you drive away,
But you still got your faith,
No matter how long it takes,

Take a sip,
Drink it up, lick your lips,
drink it up, whoa.
I'll see you in the wild yonder
