I felt so introspective tonight
Thinkin' ahead about my final hindsight
Did I make every moment count
How much did I sit about
Doin' not the good I know to do

What will I say when I'm faced with His glory the saints
And the angels as I tell my story
Will the works I've accomplished be worthy of Heaven
What will I think lookin' back
What was gold what was dross
What was gain what was loss
What will stand what was fleeting
And what will I change while my hearts still beating
20/20
So many thoughts fill up my mind
Look inside the world and I can't find
The promise of another day
Or how much longer I will stay
No one really knows how long they have
