I woke up in the morning
Realized what I jerk I've been
Feel like I need to call up
Say I'm sorry to all my friends

And now I see how God's working
Sensitizing that part of me
I've been learning the difference
Between attitude and identity

I'm sorry about who I am
It's not who I'm trying to be
For some reason my bad attitude
Just comes so easily

Love is like an addiction
And I hope that I'm gettin' hooked
Spread it like an infection
Seein' Christ everywhere I look

I don't want to be know as
The handsome guy with the attitude
I'm sick of makin' excuses
It's not okay for me to be rude

I'm sorry about who I am
It's not who I'm trying to be
For some reason my bad attitude
Comes so easily

Your breaking down my defenses
And I'm findin' I'm not so hard
Love is knockin' me senseless
Love is catchin' me off my guard

And now this chip on my shoulder
Is losing some of it's jaggedness
Lord, I want to draw closer
Leave behind all my bitterness

I'm sorry about who I am
It's not who I'm trying to be

For some reason my bad attitude
Just comes so easily
