Hey, hey, hey, let's go

1999 and the stakes is high
Our options have come down
To either we do or we die
We need You now more than ever
Pull out all of the strife in the church
Get us together

Is time running out?
I can't say I do know
We have one day less than we did yesterday
So it's up to us to unite
You wanna fight the power
You need the power to fight

And can we sing with one voice
If we all love the same God?
Can we agree to disagree?
And so we cry with one voice
To the only God in all the universe
Who holds us in His hands

No more time for us to bicker and complain
If we're called by the same name
Nowhere for us to lay the blame
Except for ourselves and if we died to our old selves
We've come alive as God's flesh
That makes us family

Deeper than death but we don't act so tight
When there's a back to bite
Are we less like a family
And more like a fistfight?
Are we there but not quite?
Are hypocrites children of light?

And can we sing with one voice
If we all love the same God?
Can we agree to disagree?
And so we cry with one voice
To the only God in all the universe

Who holds us in His hands

And can we sing with one voice
If we all love the same God?
Can we agree to disagree?
And so we cry with one voice
To the only God in all the universe
Who holds us in His hands
