Does the world ever seem like a nightmare?
Some suffer but the other ones don't care
What does it matter if it's going on elsewhere
Like it doesn't happen if it's not happening here

There's a girl with only a mother
And her dad just won't seem to bother
No love so she finds a lover
Now she has a child who doesn't have a father

Whoa-o-o
I hope the Prince of peace is coming soon
Whoa-o-o
Yeah, I hope the Prince of peace is coming soon
Whoa-o-o
We'll learn to make a plowshare from a gun
'Cause we won't need them when the kingdom comes

When the Communists turn into the terrorists
But the axis came before the Soviets
And before that came the confederates
We'll always have a war to fight, you can count on this

With every cure there comes another sickness
The Earth dies with every bit of progress
We've gone deaf to the cries of oppressed
What we need is Jesus to redeem us

Whoa-o-o
I hope the Prince of peace is coming soon
Whoa-o-o
Yeah, I hope the Prince of peace is coming soon
Whoa-o-o
We'll learn to make a plowshare from a gun
'Cause we won't need them when the kingdom comes
No, we won't need them when the kingdom comes

Now the world doesn't work 'cause we've broken it
And we need dope or Prozac just to cope with it
Now the beast speaks, it's peace the congress
Plans to propagate, proposition 666

Hitler's still alive in the knives of abortionists
And the news twist the truth like contortionists
And they wonder what happened to humanity
You say peace but were headed for calamity

Whoa-o-o
I hope the Prince of peace is coming soon
Whoa-o-o
I hope the Prince of peace is coming soon
Whoa-o-o
We'll learn to make a plowshare from a gun
'Cause we won't need them when the kingdom comes
We long for the day when we will see
The heavens and the earth as they should be
