Are you telling the whole truth or are you terrified how can suddenly your love subside suddenly your love subsides is it because you are scared that in future times suddenly my love subsides how could suddenly my love subside

I bet that you proceed like too often you do you only let your rational mind decide only your rational mind decides who has taught you to choose who encouraged you might let your rational mind decide and tell me that your love subsides

Now you are confident your decision has been right soon you will repent you did not stay by my side
soon you will repent you did not stay by my side

You can't hoax me into believing you don't need me beside you I know you know soon at the latest in a different mood the question is will you have the guts to revise or will you stay with your young blind rational mind

Now you are confident your decision has been right
soon you will repent you did not stay by my side
soon you will repent you did not stay by my side

Why do we yield to mobility when we know where we belong
set those priorities of which we sense they are wrong

You can have me
do not walk alone
when you can have me

You can have me
do not walk alone

â€¦
