Why do I remind
myself about the time with you when I I was losing my faith in you by my side

Why do I go back to times, tell me why we never danced where was my head, when did my love to you advance why have you become cold as I was once

Now as Iâ€™m alone and I know your final amount now that you are living apart, now that you turn into sound
now I feel that thereâ€™s something of you in me kept alive

Why do you suddenly seem much stronger than I when did you resist and your resistance weaken mine why is your soul
so deep in mine

Canâ€™t use nor ignore
reduce nor restore
my feelings for you
I showed you more
and in the moment it grew
too late I
late I realised
reduce nor restore them when Iâ€™m thinking of you

Why canâ€™t I rewind how can I get back there and change my former mind â€™cause now I fear that thereâ€™s something of you in me staying alive

Will there be, may I foresee the day when you will leave my mind
the day we donâ€™t regret that once we both were blind

Â 'cause so are you so was I

reduce nor restore
I showed you more
too late I

Music, turn off the music, turn off the music all this music just reminds of you

Music, turn off the music, turn off the music
â€

too late I
