So let's jump ship and sail to new and undiscovered lands There's nothing left here for me, for you, for us, with them
So let's jump ship and leave, seeking lands lost across the sea There's nothing left here for me, for you, for us, with them

I can't commit in case this is the end of me
And there was no promise of ships to come I'm not here out of choice if you've shackled my feet to the ground And There was no warning of ships to come

And there was no promise of ships to come
And there was no warning that ships would come
So we stand in hope that ships will come
And we stand in fear that ships won't come

I will never more endure to sit at home with empty hands
These hand will make new life for me, for you, for us A devil rises in my heart far worse than any death to me
New lands will breathe new life for me, for you, for us

And there was no promise of ships to come
And there was no warning that ships would come
And we stand in fear that ships won't come
