I've been praying to idols
Begging favors from ghosts
I could feel suicidal
From a pillar to post
I used to be hollow then you came along
Now I kneel to Apollo I'm religious

I believe in the magic
Feel the heat of your skin
You can call me fanatic
I'm your soldier of sin
We're crashing the club doors and live for the night
When I'm back on the dance floor I'm religious

I've been praying to idols
Begging favors from ghosts
I could feel suicidal
From a pillar to post
I used to be hollow then you came along
Now I kneel to Apollo I'm religious

When I'm falling I'm calling the gods
When I'm falling I'm calling the gods
