"You Break Me Up"

Sometimes I bang on the door to your squad
Sometimes I wish I believed in your god
Bleeding from walking the night in your shoes
Why do my knees keep on hurting

I guess I can't scare you
When showing my scars
That's how you won my heart

You break me up you heal me in
Cause a commotion drive me to spin
You break me up you heal me in
Throw me to lions tempt me to sin
You break me up you heal me in

What was that coin that you threw in my well
Cause I've been torn between heaven and hell
Slowing the train I prepare to get off
That's when the rush is returning

I guess I can't scare you
When showing my scars
That's how you won my heart

You break me up you heal me in
Cause a commotion drive me to spin
You break me up you heal me in
Throw me to lions tempt me to sin
You break me up you heal me in

You break me up you heal me in
Cause a commotion drive me to spin
You break me up you heal me in
Throw me to lions tempt me to sin
You break me up you heal me in
