I just need somebody
I just need some love
Now you got me lying next you
I can't live without you Cause you're all that I've got
Now you got me forever loving you
So rescue me baby, cause I'm going crazy
I'll be alright, alright
So stay with me baby, cause you love to hate me
I'll be alright, alright
You left me here with nothing and I should've seen it coming
You got my head spinning, got my heart racing
But I'll do it again
Now my bed is empty, my sheets are getting cold Baby when you tempt me, I'm always waiting by the phone
Don't you say it over, I'll take your pictures off the wall
And throw away the days where we used to have it all
I will always be the one who fights for you
I'll throw away everything just for you Give me a sign and I will be anywhere you are
