"Out Of My Way"

I am still unsure of my will I feel weak
afraid of what's waiting for me

Now it's time I let myself go like an avalanche Ride the sound wave 'cause I'm ready to handle this chance

Chorus (x2):
Stand out of my way
Stand out of my way
I set myself free today

I was still
unsure of my will
Now I've changed
Really feel I can't be tamed

So strong I will break whatever is in front of me
Like a firework I blow myself in a million beats

Chorus (x2):
Stand out of my way
Stand out of my way
I set myself free today
