End Of Days

Save yourself
The world you know will soon be gone
Gonna save myself
You see I always travel alone

I feel the sun is slowly losing it's shine
You don't believe but soon you will come around
It won't be long
End of days will come

Time to change our evil ways
All we know will suddenly turn to gray
It won't be long
This is the end of days

I feel the sun is losing it's shine
You don't believe but you'll come around
It won't be long
End of days will come

Time to change our evil ways
All we know will suddenly turn to gray
It won't be long
This is the end of days
