Same Kind Of People

I see you walking down the street
In your long black coat
You're pretty hard to miss
And the way you move
Makes me wanna skip a heartbeat

You always sit in
The same old bar
With the same old people
That have gone too far
You talk about the same things
Already talked last night

Did you ever feel like changing
Or will you keep putting yourself down
What do you think about
When you're lone at night
Now me, I'll just keep on waiting
Sitting across the street
And maybe, one day, our eyes will finally meet
Cause we're the same kind of people
Spending time in different bars

Last night
I was somewhat weary
Couldn't get a straight
Thought the entire time
I thought, oh well
You can't always get them right

Then the earth starts shaking
As the doors are opened
I see you walk on with a blissful smile
You came up to me
While my mind was spinning
And said why don't we talk for a while

Did you ever feel like changing
Or will you keep putting yourself down
What do you think about

When youâ€™re lone at night
Now me, I'll just keep on waiting
Sitting across the street
And maybe, one day, our eyes will finally meet
Weâ€™re the same kind of people
Just spending time in different bars

Weâ€™re the same kind of people
Spending time in different bars
Spending time in different bars
