Start up the engine
Lets get out by heading away from here
There's no next year for me here
Take hits and pass it
And let all the ashes fall to the floor
Once you have it all, you'll still want more
Take my innocence away, would they even notice
Either way?
My visions blurred, can you tell I'm a kid that was
Not into going to church?

The stars are burning out tonight
Do you think we'll stay this high?
And pick our favorite ones outside
Before this turns black
Lets burn away our past
And set this cruise control for crash

Start up the fire
Lets burn this place straight down,
Down to the ground
If no one makes a sound then we'll be fine
Use my lighter
In life we're the writers to our own books
I've written mine on lies and catch hooks
Lets dance around the mess we've made
Call someone up let's score an 8th
To sit and relax
There's nothing we can do about the past

The stars are burning out tonight
Do you think we'll stay this high?
And pick our favorite ones outside
Before this turns to black
Lets burn away our past
And set this cruise control for crash

Someone sees smoke, call 911
Lets let this burn until it's done
If we're all alone
Aren't we all together?

Don't walk away. lets let them see the Mess that we became
Sirens flashing, here's the cops
Don't blame this on not having jobs but dreams
And I see things cause I'm not afraid to Think outside the box
And now I'm shaking, I hope I'm making
Perfect sense so place your best
To see where I end up and oh my god this Place is so messed up

Rip me apart to see my insides
Compose myself I'm not secure
And don't believe a single thing
That you have heard
Throw my pride into this fire
My confidence is dead, I'm tired
Who's giving up? (I'm giving up)
I won't burn out, I'll just burn up
And I was raised on excellence
Always taught to look my best
I don't wanna be just anybody
I don't wanna be anything you forget
Villains die and heroes live forever
Tragic endings get remembered
I don't wanna be just anybody
I don't wanna be anything you forget...

They won't forget you in the end.
