I'm turning, twisting in my bed just laying down your hands all over me, she whispers softly
"Let's move it to the ground" take it down like a pill and let it digest and feel the change in the pit of my chest when you wake undress i'm messed up and choked just another time that you fucked up

Your eyes got a hold on me and they've got me sinking in cement
don't panic, breathe
when you're walking out on me been spending these last years just waiting around not gonna sit here and watch what we both believe in pass me by

when you wake undress
you fucked up
sinking in cement
don't panic, breathe

keep it comin' or i'm gonna let you down keep it comin' dont you bother to come back now keep it comin' cause i'm gonna let you down just don't talk
keep it comin' this is donw when i leave town
