Something new has happened thereâ€™s excitement everywhere
positive vibrations feel them travel through the air.
Talking about the man whose wish is to find peace.
A visionary person a true seeker of the truth,
reformer and a thinker whoâ€™s ethics I canâ€™t
refute.
A man of resolve whoâ€™s cool-headed and calm.

Barack Obama is his name
who coined the motto â€œYes we canâ€.
Barack Obama is the man
whoâ€™s here to help us, just let him.

Not a man who wonâ€™t discuss or face his enemies
someone with an open mind who weights thing
carefully,
he extents his hands heâ€™s not one to grandstand.
Wonâ€™t say heâ€™s The Messiah or a perfect human being heâ€™s a man heâ€™ll make mistakes whoâ€™ll own-
up to his failings.
He stands for fairness, and heâ€™s a confidant.

Barack Obama is his name
who coined the motto â€œYes we canâ€.
Barack Obama is the man
whoâ€™s here to help us, just let him.
Barack Obama is his name
support this grand man â€œYes we canâ€.
Barack Obama is the man
whoâ€™ll bring hope to all, just let help him.
Sixth bi-racial president whoâ€™s served the U.S.A.
forty-fourth, sage president not there to masquerade.
Uses his intelligence in a cool methodical way consensus is his process, real change is his aim.
(Rap)
Iâ€™m angry with some people from the U. S.A. some of their elected people who just grandstand. I have a problem with narrow-petty-simple minded people who just know the facts, and I find them off the track.
Iâ€™m angry â€˜coz the Party called the GOP and some conserva Democrats arenâ€™t there to construct but just disrupt, obstruct, corrupt the minds of people thatâ€™s evil.

Iâ€™m angry coz they think that youâ€™re really chic and the only thing they know is to defeat what the president seeks. I think thatâ€™s weak! Even cheap! Iâ€™m angry coz some people they just wonâ€™t see what the president has done to help bring peace, and jobs, and hope, tax cuts, bailouts, and the list goes on and on and on.

Iâ€™m angry coz some people they just wonâ€™t see that aggressions isnâ€™t always the way to be. Some just donâ€™t understand that the man is no fool heâ€™s sophisticated, intelligent, dynamic and cool, and he uses his intelligence to apply the rules, and some folks really need to be schooled.

Iâ€™m not givinâ€™ up on President Obama you see. I wanna help our president to achieve his dreams.

(Sing)
