How can I sing when there's no melody?
How can I dance if we're not partnering?
How can I fly when my wings are broken?
How can I smile when sweet words aren't spoken?

How can I cope if I'm not given hope?
How can I live if your love you won't give?
How can I exist if I cannot live my wish?
How can I be your guy if constantly denied?

So! I say,
Baby, won't you put my mind at ease.
Please help me solve this mystery.
Don't keep me wondering please don't tease.
Let me know how you feel for me.

How can I protect you when not with you?
How can I show respect when we can't connect?
How can I be untrue or make you feel blue?
How can I be my love unconditional to you?

Baby, won't you put my mind at ease.
Please help me solve this mystery.
Don't keep me wondering please don't tease.
Let me know how you feel for me.

How can I feel free to know that you need me?
How can I know if you won't let it show?
How can I transcend what I'm feeling deep within?
How can I make you see to love is easy?
Easy!
