Don't do this again cause I feel this is rising
All these thoughts were lost to A cross
They horrify me
I told you to be silent. You crucify me
(Repeat And Re-Spin)
I know this is my one chance in my life so push play
I'll show you more than you'll ever know
Doctor! Doctor! Police Man!
We've got an emergency at hand.
Stitch me up. You can't heal this wound
You better call for back-up cause your time is soon.
Frame by frame this is coming together.
Frame by frame this is rearranged.
No don't do this again cause I feel it rising.
I told you to be silent but you
You crucify me.
Do you like how it feels when I come closer now?
This is my "FUCK YOU" face
I can feel you haunting me.
The ghost of you is watching me
And I thought that this was forever
I thought that this was now
I thought that this was forever
I thought that this was you
Scratch at my calloused hands the hardship won't stop
This journey's so long. I take A breath
The damage is done
(Frame By Frame)
Frame by frame this is coming together.
Frame by frame this is rearranged.
(Do You Like How We Feel?)
Frame by frame this is coming together.
Come together.
Frame by frame this is rearranged.
No don't do this again cause I feel it rising
I told you to be silent but you
You crucify me.
