"Tears & Laughter"

In a fluid notion
Give away your best
Make a forward motion
And in the heat undress
Nearly forty hours
It's a living death
If we could only catch our
Breath
When your tears and laughter fall like rain
Turn around and things still look the same
Time to make an entry
In the book of life
Maybe the animal-husband
Or the good midwife
In the current rhythm
Now the feet are bare
And the luscious diamond
There
When your tears and laughter fall like rain
Turn around and things still look the same
Let it happen now or never
A day like this won't last forever
Now your tears and laughter fall like rain
Under a sad mistaken
Get yourself a rash
Of mysterious break-ins
Better watch your trash
And before the weekend
Can you close the deal?
Tell me are your freak friends
For real?
When your tears and laughter fall like rain
Turn around and things still look the same
Let it happen now or never
A day like this won't last forever
Now your tears and laughter fall like rain
