Awaken from your slumber
And get up for the train
You were caught at your station
And waiting for the rain
Well I call and you answer
And I answer you again
So remeber the answer
Remember the way it ends
The truth untold
Will always lie between us
We may never unfold
The way our lives have brought us here
Now send out all your letters
And write it in the sky
For worse and for better
Forever you and I
Then surrender all the ammo
And gather all your charms
Cause it's gonna burn you and it's gonna blind you
And it's gonna tear you arm from arm
The truth untold
Will always lie between us
We may never unfold
The way our lives have brought us here
Can we get on theis together
Is it time to pull the wire?
We'll I'm gonna learn to unwind you
And I'm gonna earn your faith entire
The truth untold
Will always lie between us
We may never unfold
The way our lives have brought us here
