My skin's been itching me since the middle of the summer

My skin's been itching me since the middle of the summer

Red robin under, red robin under

Red robin under, red robin under

Gently calls the calling birds, a soft and rolling thunder

Gently calls the calling birds, a soft and rolling thunder

Red robin under, red robin under

Red robin under, red robin under

[CHORUS]

Something so easy as feeling comfortable

The birds are calling me, I know

Something so easy as feeling comfortable

The birds are calling me, I know

Somebody told me I was stuck under water

Somebody told me I was stuck under water

Red robin under, red robin under

Red robin under, red robin under

[CHORUS]

Nothing seems to bother me

When I am on the other side

Nothing seems to bother me

When I am on the other side

Red robin under, red robin under

Red robin under, red robin under

[CHORUS]
