The eye is catching things
It will never see again
Becoming memories
I will one day paint

Three feet thick
Three feet thick
On a

Big white wall
Big white wall

The Greenland ice is moving
Standing up, it's almost human
The truth as strange as fiction
This life is one weird addiction

Slap my face
What is this place?
It's a

Big white wall
I'm on a big white wall
What's this I'm on?
A big white wall
It's a big white

Scraping soot off a stone church roof
Looking down on a Chelsea girl
Who kicks a can into the river
Floats up to her, tell me sister

What is it?
What is it?
It's a

Big white wall
On a big white wall
It's a big white wall
On a big white wall
