Making babies, buying houses
A French guy's name is on our trousers
We used to be such rabble rousers
Before the world revolved around us

I've been domesticated blind
Family fills my mind
And there's more problems than there's time
I've been domesticated blind

Yeah yeah
Yeah yeah

Breakfast is on the kitchen counter
Here's my wife, I think I'll mount her
Picture on my desk, surround myself
With happiness abounding

I've been domesticated blind
Family fills my mind
And there's more problems than there's time
I've been domesticated blind

I've been domesticated blind
Family fills my mind
And there's more problems than there's time
I've been domesticated blind

Yeah yeah
Yeah yeah

I took the kids to the beach again
To ignore what the tide brought in

Ain't got no time for the world around us
Exiles, martyrs, political browsers
With all these lunatic arousers
I think I'll go and hit the showers

I've been domesticated blind
Family fills my mind
There's more problems than there's time

I've been domesticated blind

I've been domesticated blind

Family fills my mind

And there's more problems than there's time

I've been domesticated blind
