How can I resist, such pretty porcelain lips, if you know the answer, clumsy dancer, can you tell me quick?
Cause all the trees are burned and the lesson still aint learned. So if my body's fit for battle with you make it conformed.

Cause my oh my how your body gets me high, with moves for eyes, how can I even deny? My oh my. Little blonde angel standing in the sun, soaking up smiles from everyone, laying in the grass smoking all of her stuff, I'm so glad I can't get enough.

Show me something I don't know, show me somewhere I don't go. Should I plant flowers in your bed (?) or ideas in your head? Cause if my body's fit for battle with you, you should have said.

Cause my oh my how your body gets me high, with
blonde angel standing in the sun, soaking up smiles
from everyone, laying in the grass smoking all of her stuff, I'm so glad I can't get enough.
