Just up the road there's a waterfall, and your bags still packed in your new car so let's burn it all, and forget what they say, forget we're going crazy they're wrong (?), let me out of the game you're losing call a changeup.

Look at you, where exactly (?) how they choose, wearing someone else's shoes, selling everything you do, for the camera lens it's for you, your folks must be so proud of you.

And inside your mind there's a river dry, when you get your high off the dollar sign, what a slow demise, so fuck what you say if you think I'm going crazy.

Look at you, where exactly (?) how they choose,
you do, for the camera lens it's for you, your folks must be so proud of you. Look at you, where exactly (?) how they choose, wearing someone else's shoes, selling everything you do, for the camera lens it's for you, your folks must be so proud of you. Your folks must be so proud of you. Your folks must be so proud of you.
