You're not like other girls,
You don't need pearls,
To live your life

You don't follow no crowds,
Or have any rows,
With anyone you hate

Don't matter how many things you have,
Don't matter how many clothes you have,
Doesn't really matter cause it's all for somethin'
No it really means nothin'

Ur Cool, but you don't know it,
(Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh)
If they could see this side of you,
But only if you want them, to cause

Ur Cool, but you don't show it,
(Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh)
If you could see what I could see,
If you believe like I believe UR COOL

You have a couple of friends,
But both of them,
Are at loose ends

Don't worry, I'm here to mend,
I'm here to lend,
A hand to you
(A hand to you)

Don't matter how many things you have,
Don't matter how many clothes you have,
Doesn't really matter cause it's all for somethin'
No it really means nothin'

Ur Cool, but you don't know it,
(Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh)
If they could see this side of you,
But only if you want them, to cause

Ur Cool, but you don't show it,
(Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh)
If you could see what I could see,
If you believe like I believe UR COOL

You can say she's cool or not,
You're the one that's hatin'
Knowing you, it's time to stop,
Me and her ain't datin'

Lost the music, lots of mouth,
Told you she ain't got no crown
Millions of people she don't know
That's the way she likes to roll
(Way she likes to roll)

Ur Cool, but you don't know it,
(Ur Cool but you don't know it)
If they could see this side of you,
But only if you want them, to cause

Ur Cool, but you don't show it,
(Ur Cool but you don't know it)
If you could see what I could see,
If you believe like I believe UR COOL

Ur Cool, but you don't know it,
(Ur Cool but you don't show it)
If they could see this side of you,
But only if you want them, to cause

Ur Cool, but you don't show it,
(Ur Cool but you don't show it)
If you could see what I could see,
If you believe like I believe UR COOL
