The morning light caresses your face on my pillow
You're still asleep and you're so beautiful
I'm so proud that i lie right beside you
My bed, my sheets, you and me, so suitable

You give me the best of you, and i wanna give you the best of me
I know that to two of us together we are meant to be
I adore you, my body's calling for you
I feel like i've come home when i'm with you

You're so beautiful
I just thought you ought to know
This is original
I never felt like this way before
And now i'm waking up with you
I can't believe that this is true
You're so beautiful

The glow of a candle caresses your face on my pillow
You just fell asleep and you're so beautiful (you're so beautiful)
It feels so good, i cannot believe it's real
This silence of the night, you by my side, i got it all (i got it all)

You give me the best of you, and i wanna give you the best of me

I know that the two of us together we are meant to be
I really, really, really, really love you

You're so beautiful
I just thought you ought to know
This is original
I never felt this way before
And now i'm waking up with you
I can't believe that this is true
You're so beautiful
oohoo love you

You're so beautiful (oohoo)
I just thought you ought to know (ooh)
This is original (soo Beautiful yeahh)
I never felt this way before (love you)
And now i'm waking up with you (And I'm waking up with you)
I can't believe that this is true (Can't believe that this is true)
You're so beautiful

... so don't you ever walk away
Never, never. no, no...
... don't you walk away from me now...
