Sumwhere nobody must have beautys at all and if u

Follow me and lets go to the place where we belong and leave our troubles at home come with me we can go to a paradise of love and joy a - destination where we belong and leave our troubles at home come with me we can go to a paradise of love and joy a - destination unknown

We left the city the pollution the crowd,
The air is clear here oceans blue I love that sound.
Where happy on this destinatin we found and if u want us you can follow me. Lets go, Follow me and lest go to the place where we belong and leave our troubles at home come with me we can
unknown..
