I know that you know that we knowAs plain as the stars that are shining aboveAnd I know that you know I wait for the morningI wake up beside you my love And all of the things that you thought you should tell meAre all that I needed to knowYou told me our love was eternalEternity's such a long time left to go Two crazy lovers we must find a wayHold on now baby I am on my wayBook us a ticket on the midnight trainYou
never know darling, they might never see us again 'Cos I know that you know that we knowAs plain as the stars that are shining aboveAnd I know that you know I wait for the morningI wake up beside you my loveIt seems like the world has been waiting to show usA secret it's kept for so longAnd oh how I know that it's love that has found usIt's found us right where we belong
Two crazy lovers we must find a wayHold on now baby I am on my wayBook us a ticket on the midnight trainYou never know darling, they might never see us againThey might never see us againThey might never see us again, again, again
Two crazy lovers we must find a wayHold on now baby I am on my wayBook us a ticket on the midnight trainYou
never know darling, they might never see us again
Two crazy lovers we must find a wayHold on now baby I am on my wayIt's just the beginning there can be no endYou never know darling, they might never see us againThey might never see us againThey might never see us again, again, again
