Life is a struggleBaby you got to chooseHear the call of the wild windWhat have you got to loseSo take off that coat and kick off those crazy shoesI can see by your smile that you're readyWell I'm ready too Oh life is a puzzleBaby you've got to tryBut don't let it get youDon't let it pass you by'Cos here and now darlingHere and now you got meAnd something inside me tells me it's meant to be Will it be alrightI'm getting a message from someoneWill it turn out rightIt's not just a face in the crowdIt's not just a face in the crowdFace in the crowd Will it be alrightI'm getting a message from
someoneWill it turn out rightIt's not just a face in the crowdIt's not just a face in the crowdFace in the crowd
the wild windWhat have you got to loseSo take off that
smile that you're readyWell I'm ready too So just close your eyesI'm getting a message from someoneThrough a clear blue skylt's not just a face in the crowdIt's not just a face in the crowdFace in the crowd
