The secret that you keeps hidden way down deepI see it in the window of your soull hear it in your voicel feel it in your touchThe love that's in your heart you can control

So take your chancesLet's not pretendCause we may neverPass this way again

The pleasures of the nightThe darkness and the lightIt's hard to see the writing on the wallI hear it in your voicel feel it in your touchI see it through the window of your soul
