Well I left my home and started to roll
I knew the beginning here out on my own
.. in the sun so woman I skin things are observing around the..

before a along time I've been on the..
and I don't need no woman to sing I'm ..up with all my future is bright and give me some sunshine give me some shine

...

I've waited so long, waiting so long I'm getting used to feeling alone I'm getting used to out on my own before a long while I thought I would pray but I know that..change so wild

I'm ..low low low, low low low, low low low low low low
low low low low low low..

and I open my.. and I struggle my fears I can't lie and it's been so long long time and it's been such a long time down the..

I'm ..low low low, low low low,
low low low low low low
low low low low low low..

I, I left my home and started to roll
