most of my life I've spent up in the air waiting for time to come down and now my virtue is well past its curfew I've got to get out of this town madness, a train that's left the station all destinations unknown I needed to find myself a new situation one that I can call my own and I'm alright now

and I'm alright now
and I was blind and if at times I could not see you had me wrapped up in this mess again but I broke free
and I was blind and if at times I could not see

spending my time through pockets of pavement wheels spinning around going through the motions the trials and phases so I can shed this year-old skin peeling the layers like onions they make me cry and I'll be alright if I can just look you all in the eyes I made it this far and I'm not going to look back 'til I get to the end of this town

and I'm alright now
and I'm alright now
and I was blind and if at times I could not see
and I was blind and if at times I could not see

and I'm alright now (8x)
