Going through the window in the tower that casts
shadows on,
the ancient sea that's over me, in to the desert that I
roam.

In to wait, you'll never fear the one who knows when you are near.

South beneath the painted sky and rivers flowing through my mind.

In to wait, you'll never fear the one who knows when
you are near.

(Chorus) Simple feeling, simple feeling, simple feeling,
simple feeling (repeat once).

Going through the window in the tower that casts
shadows on,
the ancient sea that's over me, in to the desert that I
roam.

In to wait, you'll never fear the one who knows when
you are near.

How do I find? How do I find? Oh! The feeling! How do I find?

Ohhhhhh...

(Chorus) Simple feeling, simple feeling, simple feeling,
simple feeling (repeat once).

Going through the window in the tower that casts
shadows on,
the ancient sea that's over me, in to the desert that I
roam.

In to wait, you'll never fear the one who knows when
you are near.

How do I find? How do I find? Oh! The feeling! How do I find?

Ohhhhhh...

(Chorus) Simple feeling, simple feeling, simple feeling,
simple feeling (repeat thrice).
