Something tells me
What lies ahead
Will not be so easy now
It's time to make a choice
Ready up, or meet your fate in flames
So what will it be?
Time to pick up some speed
I'll make it so they remember me
Living in fear is how
I choose not to live.

NEVER RUNNING IN FEAR!

Take me away.....
I felt the burning beneath my skin
It took over my mind and erased the pain
Resurrecting something from within
Like a seed that blossoms
It's like waking up
In a dream that's stuck in time
I've never felt so
I've never felt so alive
So alive!

I've been to hell and back
I've seen the other side
Never running for my life
I SPIT IN THE FACE OF DEATH!

Fully prepared for what lies ahead
Tearing down the walls that close me in
Maybe I can touch the sky
It's not a good day to die
Living fearless!
