It is a dream to reach the beauty of the stars
But when you reach this beauty
You may burn the sun
Sad faces on drab skin
Turning my heart to stone
Move a part and slowly take
The pleasure of being alone

Limited views key to my thoughts
They all come near
And then evaporate but still the view is clear

Having more choices but one decision
Many voices losing this mission
Having more choices but one decision
Voices voices losing this mission
Dancing on one foot
Been hailed by most of the blind audience
Dancing on one foot
Wearing the mask of clown
Symbol of your weakness

Dancing on one foot
Been hailed by most of the blind audience
Dancing on one foot
Wearing the mask of clown
Keeping us all down

Limited views key to my thoughts
They all come near
And then evaporate but still the view is clear

Hold back your tears they are unseen
New wine to the shape of power in between
Hold back your tears they are unseen
Although I am lost I have felt the best
I have ever been
Smoke and fire partial hell
Completed in misshapen agonies that dwell
Equal in divinity but spiral in sight
I share you fools the majesty of this night

I share you fools this beautiful night
Here in my prison devoid of light
To motivate your fears to differentiate between What was wrong and what is right

i will burn my story and spread its heat
I am sure the world will feel so sweet
What a faithful demon cries at my feet
Displays me facts and then delete
I concealed the fact of death so I might still Breathe
I threw my mind into a cold river so it can Finally freeze

And now do you remember the glory of your Definition?
Conspiracy under the pressure of your dead
Confutation

Limited views key to my thoughts
They all come near
And then evaporate but still the view is clear
