In the midst of endless grief
I can see you in the distance.
Your voice rings in the silence.
And a thousand hopes and dreams were shattered in a moment
And your name is all I scream.

Gone from my eyes, disappeared in the night, like
tears in the rain.
Runaway runaway runaway inside your mind. Lost here
forever. Runaway

Like a whisper to the wind, I can barely stand to wonder,
This false reality.
And I cant begin to find an answer to this bleak
insanity.
Now I'm holding on to every memory.

Gone from my eyes, disappeared in the night, like
tears in the rain.
Runaway runaway runaway inside your mind. Lost here
forever. Runaway

I close my eyes, your all I see I hide inside your memory. Until the day I see your face.

Gone from my eyes, disappeared in the night, like
tears in the rain.
Runaway runaway runaway inside your mind. Lost here
forever. Runaway
