verse 1:

day by day we through when in time proper to have but love have to go now and then finally I'm alone

reff:

and now... I will never smile (I will never smile)
when you're fading away
I hope you to come back
because... you're different (you're different)
from the others
I'm weak without you

verse 2:

I know I'm not the best
but I'm trying to be good I know I'm not the most gorgeous but I'm trying to be....

reff:

and now... I will never smile (I will never smile)
when you're fading away
I hope you to come back
because... you're different (you're different)
from the others
I'm weak without you

bridge:

only you different from them (only you different from them)
only you that made me happy (only you that made me happy) only you that made me change (only you that made me change)
only you that make me like this....

only you different from them only you that made me happy only you that made me change
only you that make me like this.....

reff:

and now... I will never smile (I will never smile)
when you're fading away
I hope you to come back
because... you're different (you're different)
from the others
I'm weak without you

and now... I will never smile (I will never smile....)
when you're fading away
I hope you to come back
because... you're different (you're different....)
from the others
I'm weak without you
