It seems that you've been M.I.A. for days
Maybe got carried away, yeah?
With all of these distractions taking shape
You're well on the way of perfecting how to flake
Second guessing every decision
Instead of recognizing when you made the right one
Now you follow and trust a bottle
Cause with if you say you're never you're never alone

And so it goes
Another night best spent alone
Only trouble knows
Exactly what i do and don't Want to hear on this drive home

It's not as easy as i make it seem
To turn away from the things you hide
You're not as clever as you might think
And not too bright
You fell in love with the game but now the scores tied
You've got your secrets and subtle winks
You pulled a fast one on me or so you think
When everything comes down around you
I'll be glad and better off and so it goes

Looking back at every single second, yeah
I can't help but wonder if i wasted
All of this time on someone
Who never even gave a damn
Wish i could stop and rewind
Start over and turn back the time
But I'd probably just be destined
To make the same mistakes again
I want you to know
I want you to know
That I'm moving in a different direction
One that you are simply incapable of
Don't worry cause i promise I'm doing fine
Here's a kiss goodbye for old times
