When the frost comes
When mittens and hats go on
When the snow leaves a blanket of white veiling the ground

When housetops
Glisten with strings of light
When the children impatiently wait for that magical night

It's Christmas
It's Christmas once again

Sing Halleluia
For a star in the sky and angels who sang
Halleluia, O Halleluia
For the Gift Heaven gave

When sleigh bells ring
When evergreens scent the air
When the ovens and counters are filled with goodies to share

When the laughter begins
As families gather close
When the melodies of the season echo through our homes

It's Christmas
It's Christmas once again

Repeat Chorus

When hearts change
When hope conquers fear
When the things that really matter seem a little more clear

When a manger
Tells the story of how we're blessed
When nations unite in peace and good will to all men

It's Christmas
It's Christmas once again

Repeat Chorus

Because of Him
It's Christmas once again
