He touched the blind
And they were made to see
And through his love
He heals you and me
He is a friend
To the man without a home
He's our shelter in the storm

He broke the chains
That bound me and you
And set us free
By unlocking the truth
He paid the price
Knowing death would be the cost
Saving souls that would be lost
And I believe...

-chorus-

That he lives
I know he lives
And every day
He's watching over me
And his great love
Will never end
For he's my brother, my savior, my friend

And when I think
Of all he's done for me
I want to live
So that someday I'll kneel
At his feet
And I'll thank him with my tears
For his love through the years
And I will see

That he lives
Yes, he lives
And every day
he's watching over me
And with his love

I cannot fall
For he's my brother, my savior, my all

The one I turn to He'll always understand
The one who gave his life
So we could live again
And his great love
Will never end
For he's our brother, our savior, our friend
