These girls they don't
They don't want
They don't wanna take it
These girls they don't
They're driving me crazy (2x)
But girls don't wanna be lonely
They say they love you
But they wanna be homies
There aint nobody that ownes me
There she goes she wont be a one and only

I'm sick of playing all the text message waiting games
That's the only reason I'm glad it's over
I remember when I met you I was drinkin an'
Your the only girl I still like when I'm sober
I should have know your too pretty to begin with
And that I'll probably never get the upper hand
If upper hand was something I was so concerned with It's bound to end up bad that's what I didn't understand
One night and one day we went on
I'm not exactly sure what it was that went wrong
I see your pictures on your facebook and I'm bruised
The way it ended kinda left me feelin used
I wonder if it's cuz you thought that I was famous
And really only dated me cuz your a fan
It's not hard to believe and I don't blame ya
Woulda walked away if I was acting like a man but...

These girls they don't
They don't want
They don't wanna take it
These girls they don't
They're driving me crazy (2x)
But girls don't wanna be lonely
They say they love you
But they wanna be homies
There aint nobody that ownes me
There she goes she wont be a one and only

One day and I can't get over how your not mine
Wonder but I doubt that I'm ever on your mind

No I'm not gonna work for you and that's the first time
Fallin for a heartbreaker and it aint the first time
Bringing out the jealousy I never knew I had
I dated pretty girls but never met a bitches dad
Ignore you for a week and you wouldn't get sad
You aint the kneedy girl that never have a dad
Wonderin maybe if I made a mistake
Never shoulda takin you on that first date
The right thing is hard to do I shoulda stayed far from you
Sittin here feelin like Jamie and Greg Calling from your type well maybe it's fake but There's nothin wrong with you
You just split my heart in two ooohhhh

These girls they don't
They don't want
They don't wanna take it
These girls they don't
They're driving me crazy (2x)
But girls don't wanna be lonely
They say they love you
But they wanna be homies
There aint nobody that ownes me
There she goes she wont be a one and only
