Look at my face
Look what your charm has done, to me
Ain't no sugar water running through my vein
It's raining so hard

Look at my face
Look what your charm has done, to me
Ain't no sugar water running through my vein

I'm telling you, I'm all over the place
I'm telling you, I'm a horse with no race
Sweet darling is it night or day
Darling can you say my name
Can't you see I'm losing my head,
Because of you
Because of you

Look at my face
Look what your charm has done, to me
Ain't no sugar water running through my vein
It's raining so hard

Look at my face, yeah
Look what your charm has done, to me
Ain't no sugar water running through my vein

I will invite the greed in our bed
Today I feel like spelling all your names
Sweet darling is the kettle on Darling is the oven on
Can't you see I'm losing my head,
Because of you
Because of you
